From the producers of Outback Truckers and Railroad Australia comes another tale of endurance, risk-taking and daredevilry. Outback Pilots is a 13 part series about modern-day ‘guns for hire’. These pilots play a vital role in the ‘do-or-die’ frontier world of the Australian outback, from providing emergency services to delivering essential supplies to isolated communities. Flying at death-defying heights, dodging killer cyclones and battling rough, dirt landing strips, this is some of the most challenging and exhilarating aerial work in the world.
